The story begins in the apartment of Nikki, an environment filled with drug abuse, sexual promiscuity and violence. Nikki looks out the window desiring the happiness she hears ringing from a nearby church. Wrecked by an abusive childhood, a gang banging lifestyle and constant feelings of depression, she dreams of a new life. She thinks God could not love her, since he allowed such awful things to happen to her life, until one day God sends a preacher to her home.

Today, Nikki Christian is a wife and mother, and has been spending her life sharing the love of God to others. Driven by God's love, Nikki wants her story to be available wherever there are hurting young ladies looking for love. Outreach ministries, churches, church leaders and non-profit organizations can utilize this story to reach out to young people who need a way out. Proceeds from the sale of the book will be used to fund the free distribution of paperback copies of the book to young people who need to hear an inspiring story of God's changing power.
