SUGGESTED INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

1. There has been many books on worship. How is this one different? Or, why did you write it?
2. What impacted you to write this book?
3. How did you arrive at the name?
4. How have your experiences and background prepared you for writing this book?
5. You alluded that much of the behavior in the church today is “whacky”. How is this so? And how does the book address this problem?
6. Recently there has been much talk about the need of the charismatic gifts in the church. Leading popular ministers have suggested that much of the practices in the charismatic church fall short of true worship, and that the charismatic gifts are not for today. Does “No More Whacky Worship” make a similar point? How is the content of the book similar to or different from these recent statements?
7. This book is a part of the God's Revival Series. Can you expand on the meaning or significance of this series, and the other books that are coming?
8. Talk about your next book in the series. How is it related to No More Whacky Worship? How is it progressing so far?
9. What do you hope will be the greatest outcome of the book?
